TWO PARTIES INDORSE ROTHKUGLE FOR COUNCIL

28th Ward Man, Supporter of Blankenburg, Chosen at a Conference.

Jacob Rothkugle, a Washington party worker, of the Twenty-eighth Ward, was named as the candidate for Common Council to succeed James Simmington, by a conference of five Washington party men and five Democrats at the Inde-pendent Club, Van Pelt and York streets, last night. Mr. Sinmington, who is a candidate for the State Legislature, resigned vesterday in order that his succesor might be chosen at the November election.

Mr. Rothkugle has been active in Twen-ty-eighth Ward politics since 1906. Al-though never before has he been a can-didate for office, while he is a Washington party man it is understood that the Democrats will support him without protest in order to insure the election of a reform member to Councils who will support the Blankenburg Administration.
